

---

BIO

INFLUENTIAL SPEAKER

Darvin Moore is a well sought after speaker who has delivered hundreds of presentations. He is making a positive impact in the lives of individuals and their families. Possessing a unique ability to deliver valuable, enlightening and relevant lectures, he tends to impress his crowd through laughter, charm and professionalism. Darvin is a true natural when it comes to engaging with people.

CREDIT EXPERT & WEALTH ADVISOR

Darvin Moore is best known for his valuable advice and captivating tutorials on credit and wealth management. Inspired by his method of teaching, many individuals have left countless of testimonials describing how he has changed their lives.

Darvin's signature phrase is "Credit is chess, not checkers." He believes that no matter how bad a person's credit, that if nurtured wisely through his program, it can, and will be fixed! Not only does Darvin seek to encourage credit restoration, he often motivates his clients to be the best version of themselves with an emphasis on building generational wealth.

ENTREPRENEUR & COMMUNITY ADVOCATE

With well over 20+ years as an entrepreneur, Darvin Moore has the distinct ability to align business minded individuals with specific information and resources needed to launch start-ups, develop pre-existing businesses or spark the inception of non-existent businesses. Darvin has helped thousands of other entrepreneurs, church communities and corporate organizations defeat fear and maximize their credit potential. He has single-handedly revamped the credit profiles of countless organizations seeking high-level capital.

FAMILY MAN

When not coaching, speaking or hosting credit seminars, Darvin enjoys spending time with his family and friends, volunteering at his local church, within the community, and planning credit literacy workshops. With a fierce legacy mindset, a few of Darvin's biggest goals include making a difference in the world through generational finance awareness, financial literacy, credit restoration and holistic living. Darvin Moore is an all around great guy.